SHOWER FOR MRS. PARKER.

Mrs. Ruth Peterson Parker, who became the bride of Almond R. Parker, November 22, was given a "shower party" at the home of her parents, Sharif, and Mrs. Herbert Peterson, Tuesday evening of this week. Miss Alice Peterson and Miss Virginia Peterson acted as hostesses to their newly wedded sister and the guests.

The rooms were pleasantly decorated and delightful luncheon was served. Music, games and conversation were the diversions. The "shower feature" was exceedingly lavish and included many pretty gifts. Mrs. Winter supervised the luncheon service. Mr. and Mrs. Parker are making their home at the sheriff's residence until it becomes definitely known whether he will be called into the national army.

The party's guest list included Mrs. Ruth Parker, Mrs. Bert Kemp, Mrs. Anna Miller, Mrs. Lou Johns, Mrs. Alice Peterson, Mrs. Alice McGinnis, Mrs. Robert Goodman, Mrs. Hazel Hunter, Mrs. Blanche Carlson and Misses Rea Free, Pearl Greenwell, Mabel Parker, Della Richardson and Verne Hodgkins.

ELKS TO GIVE BIG AFFAIR.

The Elks gave another affair of their delightful dancing parties in their hall last Wednesday night. Miss Thatcher's jazz orchestra was present to assure the members and guests of a splendid program of the latest dance selections.

The Elks announced at this affair that they are planning for a big reunion and celebration for New Year's eve and already a program committee has been selected, comprising W. T. Greenwell, Morris Flowers, George Huss, Ernest Stone, Parley Richardson and Robert M. Hoggan.

CELEBRATE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Fennell celebrated their wedding anniversary at their home, 525 Thirtieth street, a sumptuous repast being served at 6 o'clock in the evening.

The home was appropriately decorated for the occasion with American flags, and during the evening games and vocal and instrumental music was enjoyed until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Fennell received many pretty and useful gifts. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. George Foley, Mr. and Mrs. C. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Fennell, Mr. and Mrs. L. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sanders, Mrs. Jane Blackwell, Miss Emily Carr, Mr. A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Elliot West, Mr. and Mrs. George Wangsguard, Mr. and Mrs. W. Fornquist, Dr. and Mrs. Snedaker, Mr. and Mrs. Christensen, Miss Elsie Sanders, Mrs. Langlois, Dr. and Mrs. Stromberg, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wangsguard, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stromberg, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Abler, Mr. and Mrs. Scott and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Fennell.

ST. JOSEPH'S ANNUAL FAIR

A SUCCESS.

The annual fair at St. Joseph's church hall opened last Thursday with marked enthusiasm, a large number of the parish and their friends attending, and numbers selecting from the many and varied articles which were on display in the booths. Dainty aprons, useful gingham aprons, tea towels, exquisite caps and laces, all hand-made, together with candles, cakes, etc., were disposed of in large quantities and a neat sum was derived from the sales.

The children attending were not overlooked and spent lively moments about the fish pond arranged for their special benefit.

In the afternoon and evening a home prepared luncheon was perfectly served.

WHERE TO PROCURE RED CROSS SEALS.

Ogden's business houses have been very pleasant and helpful to the local chapter of the Red Cross society in the latter's earnest endeavors to dis-delicious luncheon was served. The table was decorated with a beautiful vase of white and yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. O. A. Spencer and Mrs. G. W. Johnson helped to serve. The invited guests were: Mrs. J. P. Murphy, Mrs. Fred Edlison, Mrs. P. H. Soule, Mrs. Barnett, Mrs. Kerns, Mrs. Joo. Gray, Mrs. Joe Rouse, Mrs. F. Butterfield, Mrs. S. E. Morgan and Miss Tressa Drabble.

BENEFIT DANCE.

Last evening in the Fourth ward amusements hall a benefit dance party was held, the proceeds from the ticket selling being given to the Sunday school of the ward. Miss Thacher's jazz orchestra furnished a program of dance numbers which proved delightful to the goodly number present. Delicious refreshments were served.

FROM CARSON CITY.

Mrs. William McKnight and son Daniel of Carson City, Nevada, are visiting in Ogden with Mrs. McKnight's parents Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Shields, 2353 Monroe avenue.

DANCE AT HEALY HOTEL.

Tonight in the Healy hotel another informal dancing party will be given and many are planning on attending. The event last Saturday was especially delightful.

SOPHOMORE DANCE AT O. H. S.

The Sophomore class of the Ogden high school gave a pleasant dancing party last evening. A large number of the students were present and enjoyed dancing until eleven o'clock.

MUSICAL TEA.

Next Friday, December 14, Miss Ellen Meissner will present her pupils in recital at her studio, 1325 Twenty-fifth street, the parents and a few friends being invited. This will also be occasion for an afternoon tea and will be preparatory to a public recital to be given in the near future.

FEDERATED W. C. T. U.

A large and well attended meeting of the Federated W. C. T. U. took place last Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Leota Kennedy, 2610 Washington avenue, with Mrs. W. S. Fiedel, the president in the chair. After a short business session an interesting program was given with Mrs. Mary E. Drake as leader. Rev. Christian R. Garver of the First Methodist church gave a very fine talk on the study of National plans and suggested national legislation. A very pleasing vocal solo was rendered by Mrs. Howard Williams, after which a discussion ensued as to how the local unions can help, lead by Mrs. V. C. Gunnell and followed by Mrs. J. F. Lawson and others. An instrumental duet by Misses Dorothy Long and Mildred Cline was delightfully given. Tuesday December 11, at 10 o'clock a. m. was set aside for an hour of prayer in every home for the success of the vote in the Congress of the United States on prohibition and suffrage amendments to the constitution. The meeting adjourned to meet again on January 2 with Mrs. A. M. Hastings at her home, 2227 Grant avenue.

DINNER BY CHURCH LADIES.

Thursday afternoon from 12 until 2 o'clock a dinner was served, catered by the Ladies Aid Society of the First Methodist church, the church members attending. The dinner was given in Sterling hall, 2322 Jefferson avenue, and was followed by a business meeting.

MRS. S. J. Z. GANTZ

A pretty home wedding occurred last Sunday at high noon in the attractive apartment of Mr. and Mrs. H. Albert in the Browning on Washington avenue, when their daughter, Miss Sara Albert, one of this city's charming and talented young ladies, became the bride of Lieutenant S. J. Z. Gantz, now in the service of United States examining dentist at Fort Yellowstone, and formerly pyrrhoea specialist at Ogden with offices in the Eccles building.

The engagement of these two popular young people was announced early this year but their wedding was postponed on account of the urgent need of men of Dr. Gantz's ability in the army. Only a short luncheon was allowed him from Fort Yellowstone, so soon following the wedding ceremony and dinner Lieutenant Gantz and his bride left for the Wyoming fort where they have an attractive apartment. The wedding ceremony of Sunday was solemnized by Rabbi William Rice of Salt Lake City, promptly at noon and the bride and groom stood in the archway from the parlor into the dining room. The bride was attractive in a chic going-away gown of navy blue and becoming silver hat. She carried an ivory prayer book. At either side of the doorway, the colonades were decorated with bright yellow and white chrysanthemums with fern while on the dining table, where a splendid prepared dinner was served, yellow and white chrysanthemums were arranged in cut glass vases.

Only the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony and dinner. Lieutenant and Mrs. Gantz are now happily domiciled at Fort Yellowstone.

Roses and Ferns Combined Form Pretty Setting For a Wedding

In an exquisite setting of tea roses mingled with ferns and arranged artistically throughout the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Snedding, 1951 Steele avenue, the wedding of their daughter, Mary, and Ruel C. Hayden of San Francisco, occurred last Wednesday, Bishop John Howard performing the ceremony.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Frank Chatland as bridesmaid, while Mr. Chatland acted as best man to the groom and the four stood in the parlor of the Snedding home amidst a profusion of fragrant tea roses mingled with potted ferns. The bride was attractive in a gown of yellow crepe-de-chine with dainty overdress of lace. She carried an exquisite bouquet of bride's roses tied with tulle and ribbon.

Following the ceremony a delicious wedding supper was perfectly served, immediate relatives and a few intimate friends being present.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden left for a short honeymoon trip and will be at home Monday, December 10th, at the residence of the bride's parents for a time.

FROM CORINNE.

Charles Stearns, formerly a farmer of Corinne, Utah, is now making his home in Ogden.

TO ATTEND WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mattison of Ogden were in Corinne last Tuesday to attend the wedding of Miss Maud Allen and Harvey Drew.

HUNTSVILLE DAUGHTERS OF THE PIONEERS.

Camp Olive of the Huntsville Daughters of the Pioneers will hold their monthly meeting at the residence of Mrs. Ida Peterson on Thursday afternoon, December 20.

A paper will be read of the life of Mrs. John A. Anderson, a Huntsville pioneer, and an interesting program will be carried out.

Mrs. Diana Smith is captain of the camp. All members are requested to be present, and visiting Daughters are cordially invited.

RETURN FROM EAST.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Davey, accompanied by Mr. Davey's mother, returned from an extended eastern trip yesterday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey made the trip to meet Mrs. Jane Davey, who formerly resided in Ogden.

CLUB Calendar

Children's Aid Society.

The regular meeting of the Children's Aid Society was held yesterday afternoon in the dispensary when preparations were made for extensive work for Christmas this year.

Readings, vocal selections and reviews were the big features of program given by the Fine Arts club at the regular meeting, Wednesday, at the Weber academy. Miss Elva Littlefield gave an interpretation from "Lady Windermere's Fan." Mrs. Lucian Ray sang "The Little Gray Home in the West" and Dutch Lullaby." Miss Florence Jepperson accompanied Miss Mattie Stone and Miss Sara Harman reviewed the lives of Sir Joshua Reynolds and Millet. A large number of the club members were present.

M. B. B. Club.

Mrs. C. W. Iverson entertained members of the M. B. B. club Wednesday afternoon of this week when needlework was enjoyed and a tempting luncheon was served. Lovely lavender and white chrysanthemums graced the center of the dining table, where the following were seated: Mrs. Chris Andeson, Mrs. Arthur Budge, Mrs. Jack DeBano, Mrs. C. W. Iverson, Mrs. S. G. MacBeth, Mrs. Lester Perry, Mrs. B. Robinson, Mrs. Bert Read, Mrs. Carl Redfield and Mrs. J. L. Whitaker.

The ladies are now preparing Christmas gifts for each other and their idea of conservation along this line is very excellent and should be taken up by other clubs whose members are in the habit of extending greetings to each other at Christmas time. Each member of the M. B. B. club makes or brings an attractive gift and at their last meeting before Christmas each gift is wrapped and placed in a "grab box," where they are drawn by the various members. The idea is a splendid one as it saves the expense of each member buying a gift for every other member and yet the spirit of Christmas giving is observed.

The last meeting of the club this month will be held December 19th, with Mrs. Arthur Budge as hostess.

Drama Club.

The Drama club met this afternoon at the Maids' and Matrons' club rooms at 2:30 o'clock when a splendid program of musical and literary number was given. The discussion proved interesting, the subject being "Brieux and Modern French Plays." Readings were given by Miss Louise Pierce and Miss Gertrude Weatherly. The program follows:

"Ouvre Tes Yeux Biaux," Massinet, "Eugene Brieux," "L'Heure Eque," Hahn, "La Rebe Rogue," Brieux."

Hostess to Club.

Miss Helen Carpenter entertained the XII club at her residence, 807 Twenty-third street, Friday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in knitting and sewing, after which a luncheon was served. The members of the club are the Misses Marvel Cave, Lois Richardson, Gladys Richardson, Ethel Calahan, Trude Turner, Margery Thomas, Harriet Myers, Marion Carter, Seel Bramwell, Irma O'Neil and the hostess.

This club was recently organized and the officers are Miss Gladys Richardson, president; Miss Helen Carpenter, vice president, and Miss Harriet Myers, secretary and treasurer.

Ladies Literary Society.

The Ladies' Literary society will meet with Mrs. William Douglas, Wednesday, December 13, when an interesting program of literary and musical numbers will be given.

Episcopal Guild.

Wednesday of this week the Episcopal guild ladies met at the home of Mrs. Thomas Conway, 742 Twenty-fifth street, when final preparations for the church bazaar were made. The ladies have spent several weeks in earnest work for the success of this event, which undoubtedly will prove delightful to many women of Ogden who, in doing their Christmas shopping, endeavor to find some dainty articles of handwork. Pretty booths have been arranged where everything the heart may desire is to be seen and these articles are sold at remarkably nominal sums.

Delicious refreshments will be served this evening as has been done during the afternoon.

Home Industry Club.

Mrs. Albert Coop will be hostess to the Home Industry club at its next meeting at her home, 843 Thirtieth street, next Wednesday, December 12. All members are requested to be present as special work will be taken up.

University Club.

Tonight the University club will hold its annual banquet in the Weber club rooms at 6:30 o'clock when Governor Bamberger will be present and will undoubtedly give a short address. John Culley, as president of the club, will preside as toastmaster.

The principal address will be made by Judge Tillman D. Johnson of the federal court, who will respond to the toast of "The United States and Its Allies."

Other speakers and their subjects are: Judge Valentine Gideon of the state supreme court, "The Woolsack;" Peter Kasius, "University Spirit;" Alameda, "Clarence E. Wright;" "I'm Reminded;" Special musical numbers of the University club quartette have been programmed. The entertainment committee is composed of D. L. Stone, Stuart P. Dobbs, J. C. Lynch, J. G. Falck and R. E. Geary.

Immediately preceding adjournment the annual election of officers will be held. The nominating committee made its report the first of the week and each member has been given a list of the nominees.

Sewing Club.

Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. Jennie Thacker entertained the members of her sewing club, twelve ladies being present. Following the usual needlework, refreshments were served. The club's next meeting will be held with Mrs. Frank K. Bartlett at her home, 648 Twenty-third street.

At the Maids' and Matrons' Club.

Next Friday, December 14, the Maids' and Matrons' club will give a dancing party in their hall with Miss Thatcher's orchestra present. Saturday evening the Ogden high school football boys will entertain their friends and schoolmates at a dance in the club rooms.

A. Q. M. Club.

Miss Given Cantwell entertained members of the A. Q. M. club last Tuesday afternoon at her home on Parke avenue, when needlework was enjoyed. The girls also studied their manual lessons and during the social hour refreshments were served. The seven club girls will hold their next meeting with Mrs. A. Stevens in the Silwell terrace, next Tuesday, December 11.

Utopia Club.

The Utopia club ladies were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs.

MRS. P. E. WATSON

Thursday evening, in response to a telegram from her husband who is stationed at Camp Lewis, Mrs. P. E. Watson left for Washington where she will visit with Mr. Watson, who is a member of Battery D, 388th field artillery. Mrs. Watson will reside in Tacoma, where she can be near her husband before he is called from Camp Lewis. Many of Mrs. Watson's Ogden friends know her more intimately as Jack Reeves on Barlow avenue last Wednesday afternoon. The ladies brought their needlework and spent a busy hour after which luncheon was served by Mrs. Reeves.

W. R. C. Social Club.

The Social club of the W. R. C. will meet with Mrs. Burton, 2042 Washington avenue, next Friday, December 14, from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Vincent Chautauqua Circle.

The next meeting of the Vincent Chautauqua circle will be held in the council chamber of the city hall Friday, December 14, when Mrs. Bertha E. Myers will have charge of the program.

L. A. to O. R. C.

The L. A. to O. R. C. held their regular meeting in the Fraternal building last Thursday with twenty-five members present. Mrs. Murdock of Evanston, Wyoming, was initiated into the order and following the regular business session the ladies enjoyed refreshments at Kerns'.

Social Club of L. A. to O. R. C.

Mrs. Hanley and Mrs. Ranson will be hostesses to the Social club of the Ladies Auxiliary to the O. R. C. next Wednesday, December 12.

White Rose Club.

Mrs. A. Scherer and Mrs. Fred Walker will be hostess to the White Rose club ladies next Thursday, December 13 at the home of Mrs. Walker, 474 Canyon Road.

St. Cecilia Guild

The St. Cecilia Guild met at the home of Miss Bessie McCready last Monday evening, December 3, when

MISS LILLIAN BROADBENT

Miss Lillian Broadbent was the honored guest at a pretty birthday surprise party last Wednesday evening when her sister, Miss Portia Broadbent, entertained a few friends at the Broadbent home, 1755 Twenty-second street. The home was made attractive with numerous American flags arranged throughout the rooms in an artistic manner, while in the dining room bouquets of the deepest purple violets were placed on the dining table.

From eight o'clock until near midnight, music and games were enjoyed and luncheon was served, plates being laid for the following: Mrs. Eliza Wessler, Mrs. Fred Peterson, Mrs. Rachel Wessick, Miss Pauline Burchell, Grant Peterson, Lorin Broadbent, Leland Broadbent, Edith Malan, Stella Malan, Edna Sims, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Broadbent, the Misses Wessler and Arden Broadbent.

the usual needlework was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess. The girls have postponed meeting until after the holidays. Their next meeting will probably be held the second Monday in January.

Entire Nous Club

Thursday of this week the Entire Nous club ladies spent a busy afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Herington, 2525 Adams avenue, with their rington, 2525 Adams avenue with their So many club ladies are following in these lines of endeavor and much has been accomplished in their combined efforts.

Episcopal Guild

Mrs. Thomas Conway entertained the Episcopal Guild ladies last Wednesday, Dec. 5 at her home, 743 Twenty-fifth street. Final arrangements for the annual bazaar being held today, were made at this meeting.

Child Culture Club

One of the most interesting meetings of the Child Culture club this year was held last Thursday in the Berthana with Mrs. T. F. Rowlands and Mrs. Dan Gugh as hostesses. This meeting was made doubly entertaining by the reading of a story by Mrs. Archie Bowman. The story was one of adventure written by Mr. W. L. Watts when but a young boy and the article won a $1000 cash prize in the Youth's Companion. It was splendidly written and the plot one of unusual interest.

Mrs. Parley Wright, vice president of the club, acted as chairman and presided over the meeting.

Another delightful reading was given by Mrs. Rowlands in a splendidly prepared paper giving the history of "Home, Sweet Home" and its composer and author. This was of exceptional merit and touched the hearts of the listeners.

Current events were interestingly related by Mrs. Gill and Mrs. Turner after which Miss Margaret Toy, violinist and Miss Alberta Wright at the piano, gave a number of difficult selections.

The next club meeting will be held in the Berthana with Mrs. Lydia Dye, Mrs. Tressa Olsen and Mrs. Mary Chambers as hostesses on January 10.

Christian Church Social Club

Members of the Social Club of the Christian church were charmingly entertained Friday evening of this week by Miss Vivian Gregory at her home, 2246 Madison avenue. Delightful games were enjoyed and a tempting buffet luncheon was served by the hostess.

Sewing Club.

Tuesday evening of this week Miss Genevieve Thimmes entertained members of her sewing club at her home on Twenty-eighth street.

Home Culture Club.

Last Thursday, December 6, the Home Culture club ladies spent a busy afternoon in the Red Cross rooms of the Deaf and Blind school, making gauze bandages. These patriotic club women have discontinued their two literary meetings a month, one being devoted to Red Cross work. Much is being accomplished along this line as these women are among the most energetic of the city.

Red Cross Unit of O. E. S.

The Red Cross unit of Queen Esther chapter, No. 4, met last Wednesday afternoon in the Masonic club rooms, when knitting and Red Cross sewing kept them busily engaged.
